Announcements

Thank you to all of our parent volunteers for getting us started with our first carnival. We made $ 5,800. Now we will work to make the proper adjustments. As you witnessed, it takes all of us to plan and work this event. We were a little short with the help, however, we will look at everything to make the needed improvements.

We also want to thank all of our Entertainers and DJ Alax. It was great to see such talented students from our school and Rialto High School, Carolyn Dance Studio, the Aztec Dancers, and the classic songs performed by the Bluegrass band. Finally, a great thank you to our planning committee members. For all the hours of planning, I personally thank you. Without your help, we would not have a carnival. Many of you went beyond the required 2 hour minimum and for that I am extremely grateful. Sincerely, Beverly Winn.

Congratulations to our 1st Trimester Opportunity Raffle Winners: 1st Place-Gerardo Villarreal, 2nd Place-Veronica Valadez-Arrezola, and 3rd Place-Catalina Terrazas. Thank you for support our school!

There is an opportunity each month to earn 5 PIP Hours on a Saturday 7-1 PM. If you are interested, please call the office.

Congratulations to the following Football Mania winners: Jose D. Gonzalez and Tanya Padilla

Caught In the Act

The following students have been “Caught In the Act” of doing good: Alexandra Mays & Leonidas Schramm, 2nd grade; Scarlett Aldama & Sierra Rojas, 4th grade; and Amanda Preciado, 6th grade and Elizabeth Landin, 7th grade.
